

Call for applications for a
Degree completion grant for international students

Financed from the sources of the DAAD (STIBET I)

The German Academic Exchange Service (DAAD) and TUHH International Office offer scholarships to international students in the final semester or final year of their studies at TUHH.

Funding period

The scholarship will be awarded for up to 5 months: May to September 2022.

Selection criteria

The decision to grant a scholarship is based on the following selection criteria:

- High academic achievement and the fact, that a successful degree is expected within one year.
- Master students can apply only for the last study semester.
- Financial need.

How to apply

Please find further information and an application form on the website of the International Office:
